Outstanding value shown:

Claudia – Reflective – For being reflective of emotions that others have shown.

TCS this past week:

WATSON- Enjoyed doing some sensory play with shaving foam and their first session in Forest School.

TAJIRI- Had a wonderful week, they made a xylophone out of jars with coloured water and investigated static electricity.

THUNBERG- Started looking at their new class book 'A Summer Night's Dream' with some of the characters causing great discussions.

WILLIAMS- Spent time making leaf paintings and getting to know their class team.

GRANDIN- Liked doing some free art and creating their own drawings, playing games, doing puzzles and beginning to look at Egyptians.

DAVIS- Have settled in well getting to know their class team and catching up with friends.

TURING- Have been reflecting and discussing urbanisation and sustainability as they imagine what cities in the future will look like.

EILISH- Enjoyed catching up with friend, getting to know their new class teachers, and a game of bench ball.

LAWSON- Settled back into school life and enjoyed starting their new subjects ready for GCSEs.

BEADLE- Had a tower building competition and have been settling into their new form room.

ELON- Have been playing board games, learning about photosynthesis and have started reading Act 3 of 'An Inspector Calls'.
