Week 12
DEC 24

Items of Note:

FOOTBALL MATCH- GRETTON VS TCS

A big well done to our school football team who won their first game of the year on Thursday playing against Gretton. The final score was 3-2.

CHRISTMAS EVENT- TOMBOLA

We're collecting donations for our Christmas tombola and would love your support! Suitable items include unopened gifts, festive treats, or other prizes. Thank you to everyone who has already donated—your generosity is greatly appreciated! Donations can be dropped off at Reception by 12th December.

PARENTS EVENING

Appointment times for Parents' Evening will be sent out this week. Please keep an eye on your emails for your scheduled time.

OT WORKSHOP

Join us on Monday, 9th December at 1:30 PM in the School Hall for a workshop on developing interoception awareness to support self-regulation. Please complete the Microsoft Form to confirm your attendance. We hope to see you there!

TCS this past week:

WATSON- Enjoyed joining in with a Cricket session run by Cambridgeshire Cricket. They enjoyed it so much; they are going to have weekly sessions.

TAJIRI-Have put up their class Christmas tree. In science, they have built a 2-D digestive system with paper and have started to make a 3-D one.

THUNBERG- Have been enjoying the fresh air, they tried to fly a kite in forest school and supported the school football team by watching the match from the sidelines.

WILLIAMS- Have been thinking about ancient Mayan civilization, they researched the contrast between the lives of the rich and poor.

GRANDIN- Have begun to think about creating their own website in Computing. On Thursday afternoon, they enjoyed pumpkin pies that a pupil had brought in for Thanksgiving.

DAVIS- Have explored Pocahontas and whether she was a myth or reality in the European colonisation of the Americans.

TURING- Have been working on their digital art skills, they have used a green screen and photoshopped a pug cushion into the jungle.

EILISH- Have continued with Macbeth in English and enjoyed a carousel of PE activities.

LAWSON- Have enjoyed either participating in the football match or supporting from the side lines.

BEADLE- Have been learning about nutrition and exercise for healthy and safer lifestyles.

ELON- Have finished their poems on Power and Conflict in English, completed the squeaky pop test practical in science and made Christmas decorations in Forest School.

Upcoming Key Events:
