

TCS NEWS

Week 18
FEB 25

Items of Note:

HILLTOP

Pupils and staff thoroughly enjoyed their few days at Hilltop. They took part in a variety of adventurous activities, from tree-top trails and air jumps to archery and caving.

YEAR 9 OPTIONS EVENING

Our Year 9 Options Evening will take place virtually at 4:00 pm on Thursday, 6th February. This event will provide Year 9 pupils with the opportunity to learn more about how GCSEs work and the options they can choose from. A link will be emailed to Year 9 parents on Wednesday.

MATHS CURRICULUM CAFÉ

Join us for our next Curriculum Café on Friday, 14th February! This is a fantastic opportunity to see your child's work, learn about the maths curriculum, and enjoy some refreshments. If you plan to attend, please make sure you complete the following form: <https://forms.office.com/e/4Fb44RTwCD>
We look forward to seeing you there!

TCS this past week:

WATSON—Have been naming parts of the skeleton in Science and naming their functions. They enjoyed learning the names of different bones and fixing them together in a giant puzzle.

TAJIRI—Have been very active! They went swimming followed by a session with a football coach from Cambridge United.

THUNBERG—Had fun writing news articles, 'The Thunberg News' had a range of events and disasters.

WILLIAMS—Have been developing persuasive writing skills by writing letters of complaint to British Rail.

GRANDIN—Have continued to work towards writing their stories by completing story boards in English.

DAVIS—Have been using Maths in their social time. In Science they have explored special interests and looked at how the brain works.

TURING—Have developed their understanding of energy transfer and pivots by building catapults and observing the different trajectories of items launched.

EILISH—Some of Eilish were on hilltop so had a great time doing the air jump and tree trail.

LAWSON—Have continued studying 'A Christmas Carol'. They have completed a cold assessment, as well as identifying similarities and differences between characters.

BEADLE—Have been delving into 19th Century Fiction Gothic Literature including Frankenstein.

ELON—Some of Elon enjoyed spending a few days away at Hilltop being adventurous.
