Outstanding value shown:

Phoebe- Knowledgeable – completing additional work in school and outside of school.

TCS this past week:

WATSON-Built a den outside using fantastic teamwork skills and a range of materials.

TAJIRI- Have made Mother's Day cards. They also enjoyed making chicken wraps in cooking, not many made it home uneaten!

THUNBERG- Have completed biographies on Harry Potter and some autobiographies including some of their favourite memories.

WILLIAMS- Using the book 'The Iron Man' by Ted Hughes, pupils explored similes and speech marks.

GRANDIN-Have researched how to build earthquake proof buildings and made their own models. They have also practiced their new CPR skills on an Anne doll.

DAVIS- Explored what a detailed story writing plan looks like and have written their own plans with dystopian fiction theme.

TURING-Used tin foil in art to experiment with sculpting. Pupils used the sheets of foil and moulded them to make 3D faces.

EILISH-Some of Eilish attended their reward trips and had great fun at both go-karting and laser tag.

LAWSON-Have been using feedback from a recent practice English paper to set personal targets for improving their responses.

BEADLE-Have been enjoying computing and learning about Astro Pi. In English, they have finished their Entry Level English preparation.

BANNEKER-Have looked at how living organisms are adapted to survive their chosen habitats.
