

TCS NEWS

Week 33 JUN 25

Items of Note:

Bake Sale

This Thursday, some of our pupils will be holding a Bake Sale to help raise money for new equipment in our Regulation Rooms. The sale will begin at 2:00pm in school, and parents and carers will be able to purchase cakes, brownies, cheesecake, and more at the end of the school day. Thank you in advance for your support – and don't forget to bring some change and your sweet tooth!

Summer Family Event

We're excited to announce that our Summer Activity Day will take place on Friday 18th July, from 9:30am to 1:00pm. This is always a highlight of the school calendar and a wonderful way to celebrate the end of another successful academic year. There will be a variety of fun activities for pupils to enjoy, along with a delicious BBQ lunch provided. To help us with planning, please let us know if your child will be attending by completing the short

Outstanding value shown:

All of Year 11— Courageous- For completing all their GCSEs.

TCS this past week:

WATSON – Have been using natural resources to create their own artwork. They found flowers, leaves, sticks, and grass to create unique pictures, including faces, trees, people, and pretty scenes.

TAJIRI – Had a lovely time learning about fossils with a geologist at the Sedgwick Museum. They also enjoyed The Railway Children play.

THUNBERG – Have had a busy week; they enjoyed a careers lesson where they role-played job interviews.

WILLIAMS – Have been working on writing expanded noun phrases to bring their BFG character descriptions to life.

GRANDIN – Have written speeches and diary entries as Robin Hood characters. In science, they have been looking at how eyes work. DAVIS – Have begun researching the impact humans have on the environment. Some of the class also enjoyed a theatre production. TURING – Have done some brilliant writing evaluating Disney's Robin Hood. They have also enjoyed watching some extracts from the film.

EILISH – Have worked hard on completing their accommodated exam papers and have dissected a real sheep's heart in science. LAWSON – Have started An Inspector Calls in English and made churros in cooking. BEADLE – Have been learning about consent in PSHE; some made posters to inform others of the rules. They also enjoyed their forest school session in the nice weather. BANNEKER – Have been completing their GCSE exams.
