Outstanding value shown:

Marcus, Ethan, Zac- Moral – Organising and running a bake sale.

TCS this past week:

WATSON – Have been learning new vocabulary in Maths. They are also identifying angles that are acute and obtuse.

TAJIRI – Ate some refreshing watermelon and then planted the seeds in forest school. In History, they enacted a battle between Vikings and Anglo Saxons.

THUNBERG – Have started to build their model of Sherwood forest, to link with their English and IB inquiry.

WILLIAMS – Enjoyed making savoury muffins in cooking. Some pupils put cheese and salami in them.

GRANDIN – Have been recapping time in Maths. They also enjoyed their day on the rides at the Midsummer Fair.

DAVIS – Are making excellent progress in Maths, solving financial questions. They have been looking at bank statements to solve worded questions.

TURING – Have been identifying the risks associated with atmospheric and geological hazards.

EILISH – Have moved on to histograms in maths, as well as starting 'An Inspector Calls' in English. In Science, they have continued looking at hormones.

LAWSON – In Science, they have completed the biological organisation topic which includes studies on the heart and diseases. They are now moving onto Chemistry and learning about oil rigs.

BEADLE – Have been making s'mores in cooking. Some pupils also had a bake sale to raise money for the regulation rooms.

BANNEKER – Have now finished their GCSEs. Some pupils are completing work experience.
