Outstanding value shown:

TCS Pupils – Courageous – For settling into the new academic year and having a brilliant first few days.

TCS this past week:

WATSON- Have been settling into their new class. They have enjoyed sharing playdough, Lego and exploring the outdoor environment.

TAJIRI- Have settled well, they enjoyed learning about electricity in Science, place value in Maths and turn-taking in PLG.

THUNBERG- Made chocolate chip cookies in cooking and everyone enjoyed the 'marshmallow' taste.

WILLIAMS- Enjoyed forest school. They have been very focused in class, especially Maths where they have been encouraging each other.

GRANDIN- Are excited with the prospect of earning Grandin Pounds. They have also been looking at Cambridge in Humanities.

DAVIS- Have settled well and enjoyed getting to know each other. They have started looking at 'His Dark Materials' by Philip Pullman in English.

TURING- Have started reading Macbeth in English, they also enjoyed their first lessons in their option groups.

EILISH- Enjoyed catching up with friends, getting to know their new class teachers.

LAWSON- Looked at fundraising ideas in PSHRE linking in with international charity day which was on Friday.

BEADLE- Thought about International Charity Day and may do a fundraising event involving an e-sports competition.

BANNAKER- Have enjoyed their first few days back catching up with each other and starting options lessons.

SIXTH FORM- Have been enjoying their new classrooms.
