TCS CHRISTMAS

We are looking forward to our end-of-term Christmas event, which will take place on Friday 12th December from 10:00am-1:00pm. Pupils' families are warmly invited to join us for the morning. The Christmas play will begin at 11:30am. Santa's Grotto will open at 1:00pm. Lunch will be provided. Please complete the following form to let us know if you plan on attending. <https://forms.office.com/e/ATRpC3w9zN>

PARENTS EVENING

Appointment times will be sent out this week, so please keep an eye on your emails for your allocated time. If you have opted for a virtual meeting, a link will also be included.

TCS this past week:

Watson- Enjoyed their first school trip and where they went to the cinema.

Tajiri- Have continued learning about the Romans and Celts. They learnt about Boudicca and used a 2000-year-old description to imagine what she looked like.

Thunberg- Have made salt dough decorations for the Christmas Event where they will be selling them.

Williams- Have completed some amazing written work about their trip to the Fitzwilliam museum.

Grandin- Have continued to look at fractions in Maths. In Science, they have been looking at different classifications of animals.

Davis- Have completed a chemical reaction experiment with pennies. They also worked hard in Maths to complete column multiplication.

Turing- Have completed some practice GCSE papers in Science and Maths. In PLG, they completed a practice driving theory test.

Eilish- Have been working on protest poetry in English, and have just completed a Gold Write on the topic.

Lawson- Have studied the poems, 'My last Duchess' by Robert Browning and 'The charge of the Light Brigade' by Alfred Tennyson.

Beadle- Have completed their practice accommodated papers. In PLG, they explored how to maintain positive mental health into adulthood.

Banneker- Have continued learning about the character Scrooge in The Christmas Carol.

Sixth Form- Have been working on ideas for the end of year Christmas event and have started to draft their CVs.
