Items of Note:

Have a Good Half-Term!

Thank you to all our pupils, parents/carers and staff for yet another wonderful half term. From welcoming the BBC in to film, to the Hilltop residential visit and reward trips, it has been a busy and exciting time. We hope you all have a lovely February half term and we look forward to all that the next half term brings.

Curriculum Café

Thank you to everyone who has completed the MS Form to confirm they are attending the café on Friday morning at 9.15am. We look forward to seeing you then.

Functional Skills Exams

On the first Tuesday and Wednesday back after half term, Functional Skills exams will be taking place in school for some pupils in Years 10, 11 and 12. Pupils involved will be reminded of exam arrangements and expectations around school.

TCS this past week:

Watson – Have written amazing sentences with adjectives to describe the setting of their story.

Tajiri – Have been working hard on their own stories for English and have focused on building their characters.

Thunberg – Have made a human timeline of the life of Alexander the Great. They learned how to put the BC dates in descending order when lining up the events in his life.

Williams – Have nearly finished their class book. In English they have been using the characters in the story to inspire their writing.

Grandin – Have been thinking about the skills needed for different jobs in PLG.

Davis – Have researched the impact of mobile phones in Africa in Humanities and have begun writing some descriptive paragraphs in English.

Turing – Have enjoyed their new text in English, 'A Christmas Carol' and have been baking muffins in cooking.

Eilish – Have been learning about Presentational Features for Entry Level. They also continued working on their architectural projects in Art.

Lawson – Have completed their practical assessment for their BTEC cooking qualification. In Maths they have been working on a past calculator paper.

Beadle – Have taken part in their BTEC cooking exam, preparing a variety of dishes including pizza, noodles and pasta followed by a dessert.

Banneker – Have been writing CVs in PSHRE and looking at future career options. In Science they looked at the development of the national grid.

Sixth Form – Have been providing feedback on their year so far and have been implementing changes accordingly, such as organising a trip to a local café.
